Distress Signal for Pitchers Is Sent Out by Steve Griffin

A hurry call for pitchers has been sent out by Manager Griffin. He realizes that Richmond has little chance to win a pennant unless Charlie Strain and Doc Avers are augmented by two other dependable hurlers. The collapse of Jim Vance, as shown in the game yesterday against Newport News, has brought him to a realization of this. The C. Q. D. has been sent out. Every corner of the country in which baseball is played is now being scoured, and the wires are hot. Before many days have passed new material will be on hand.

For the double-header to-day Ayers and Strain have been selected. If both games are won, the week will finish with the Colts having won five out of seven. Petersburg seems to be in a slump, and it is not inconceivable that the Griffmen will be in first place to-morrow. The question then will be of holding the advantage gained. It can't be done without effective pitching, and Steve Griffin is going to get that. Petersburg seems to be in the throes of a slump along with Richmond, while Roanoke is steadily improving its position, and is already within striking distance of the leaders. It is getting to be a pretty race, and will continue so until the finish.

IT TAKES MATTY TO CONQUER CUBS

After Two Straight Defeats, Sir Christopher Leads Giants to Victory.

ALLOWS ONLY FOUR HITS

Earl Moore, Relieving Humphries, Is Responsible for Loss of Game.

Chicago, August 1.—Mathewson beat the Cubs 5 to 2 this afternoon, allowing but four hits. Two hits in the first round resulted in one run for the Cubs. The Glants tied the count in the second and took a one-run lead in the fourth. In the seventh an error, a passed ball and Miller's single tied things again. Fletcher's single, his steal of second and Merkle's triple put the Giants ahead in the eighth. Earl Moore relieved Humphries in the ninth, and the visitors got to him for two hits, which, with an error and a pass, netted two runs. The score:

PIRATES WIN IN TENTH

a little better of the argument with Adams.

Wilson's homer, with one on, tied the score in the fourth. Jack Miller opened the tenth with a double to left, and Wilson sent him to third with a neat sacrifice. Simon then singled just back of first, ending the game. Brooklyn opened the first four innings with extra base hits, two of which were turned into runs. In the ninth Miller doubled, went to third on a sacrifice, and scored on Simon's single. The score:

BRAVES BEAT CARDINALS

St Louis, August 1.—Boston trounced the Cardinals to-day, pounding the offerings of Doak, the local recruit, to all parts of the field and winning 8 to 0. "Soldier" Hess, who twirled for the visitors, allowed only two hits, both coming in the fourth. Doak issued six passes and struck out seven. # NORFOLK LOSES TO PIRATE CREW

Unable to Hit Verbout Opportunely, Tars Drop Second Game of Series.

Portsmouth, Va., August 1 .- Norfolk was unable to hit Verbout at opportune times to-day, and Portsmouth won. Weeder, who performed for Norfolk, was effective, and might have won the game but for slow fielding in the first linning. The Firates put up an excellent game in the field, and after the first in-ning the Tars' infield was impregnable. Whitecraft's work at short for l'orts-mouth was a feature. He also dropped the ball over the fence for a home run. Whitecraft, be it remembered, was released by Norfolk because of poor work in the field. To day he handled everything that came his way, and on several occasions he used only one hand, the ungloved one, to stop line drives and fast rollers. He picked up a hot drive from Long's bat in the ninth in-ning with his bare hand, after a run, but did not get the runer at first With two men on bases in the ninth, Tennant caught Vandine's fly to left, and

DETROIT DRIVES GROOM TO COVER

Knocked Out of Box in Third Inning, Scoring Six Tallies.

LAKE HOLDS CLIMBERS SAFE

Allows Eight Hits, but Keeps Them Well Scattered Throughout Contest.

Washington, August 1 .- Jennings's rigers knocked Bob Groom out of the box in the third inning to-day, sending that the Senators were unable to catch up, the final score being 9 to 3.

Joe Lake, twirling for the visitors, went the entire route, and the eight hits made off his delivery were well scattered. Lake was accorded brilliant support at critical stages. Gallia and Harper, the last named a youngster, in the role of relief pitchers, twirled good ball. A sensational catch by Veach, robbing Gandil of a home run, was the feature. The score:

POH TO SIGN WITH COLTS

Jake Poh one of the best known and one of the best amateurs ever developed in Richmond, has assured Steve Griffin, manager of the Colts, that he will sign a local contract. He has determined to play professional baseball, and, although he has received many flattering offers from outside, has agreed to the terms offered by the local management. There is just one stipulation. Young Poh doesn't want to be farmed to any team in the North Carolina League, should no regular berth be found for him this season. To this Manager Griffin has agreed.

Poh is the class of the amateurs as an infielder. His work as a member of the Mount St. Joseph Academy team attracted the attention of Connie Mack, who has taken an interest in the boy, and who will be given first chance at his services should he develop into the player those who have seen him predict. It is probable that he will be taken with the Colts when they leave for Portsmouth next week.
